Seek info

State Police from the Calumet Post are looking for information about a man seen wearing a Halloween mask and driving a older model car in Calumet on Halloween night. Police say that the action may have been totally innocent but that they would like to talk to the driver. Although police have not received a complaint about the man they did receive information that he stopped next to a group of trick or treaters.

Information is being sought because ~~Karl Hakell~~ 11, left home late in the afternoon on Halloween and has been missing since.

People with any information about the incident are asked to call the State Police Post at 337-2211. CIS 12/3/81
